RELIGION! WHAT IS IT?

"I'm not to go to church to-day. To look devout and seem to pray; And ere to-morrow's sun goes down, Be dealing scandal through the town.

Not every santimonious face, Denotes the certain reign of grace; A phiz that seems to scowl at sin. Oft veils hypocrisy within.

'Tis not to mark our duty's walk, Or of our own good deeds to talk, And then to practice secret crime, And so mis-spend and waste our time.

'Tis not for sects or creeds to fight, And call our zeal the rule of right; When all we wish is at the best, To see our church excel the rest.

'Tis not to wear the Christian's dress, And lave to all mankind profess; Then treat with scorn the suffering poer, And fast against them close the door.

Ah no! religion means not this, Its fruits far sweeter, fairer is; In beavenly soil alone it thrives, And more than blossoms while it lives.

HYPOCRISY DETECTED.

Thus says the prophet of the Turk, Good musselman, abstain from park; There is a part in every swine, No friend or follower of mine May taste, whate'er his inclination. Such Mahem net's mysterious charge, And thus he left the point at large. Had be the sinful part express'd, They might with safety est the rest; But for one piece they thought it hard Prom the whole hog to be debarr'd; And set their wit at work to find What joint the prophet had in mind. Much controversy straight arose, These chaose the back, the belly those; By some 'tis confidently said He meant not to forbid the head; While others at that doctrine rul, And piously prefer the tail. Thus conscience freed from every clog, Mahometan's eat up the hog. You laugh-'tis well. - The tale applied May make you laugh on Cother ede. Reneunce the world - the preacher cries, We da - a multitude replies. While one as innocent regards A sing and friendly game at earls : And one, whatever you may say, Can see no evil in a play: Some four a concert or a race: And others shooting and the chase; Roya'd and lov'd, renorme'd and follow'd. Thue, but by but the world is smallowid: Each thinks his neighbor makes too free; Yet likes a since as will as he: With sughistry their cance they sweeten, Till quite from tail to snoot 'tis eaten.

The control of the co THE SABBATH.

How still the morning of the hullow'd day! Mute is the same of rural labor; hush'd The ploughboy's whistle and the millimaid's song. The scythe lies glistening in the dewy wreath Or tedded grass, mingled with fading flowers, That yestermorn bluesned waving in the breeze: The faintest sounds attract the car, -the hum Of early bee, the trickling of the deer, The distant bleating, midway up the hill. Columness seems thron'd on you unmoving hill. To him who wanders o'er the upland leas, The blackbird's note comes mellow from the dale, And sweeter from the sky the gladsome lark Warbles his heav'n-tuned song; the falling brook Murages more gently down the deep-sunk glen ; While from you lowly roof, whose curling smoke O'ermounts the mist, is heard at intervals, The voice of pasies, the simple song of praise. The dizzing mill wheel rests; the anvil's din ed by a rigid chemical analysis, experience has shown its unusual power and efficacy.

This preparation will be found on trial, to be a sure and speed for renedy for the diseases enumerated above. They purify the blood, secure regular digestion, promote a healthy action of the Liver and Stomach, and strengthen the nerves, at once securing health and vigor to the whole system. In all cases of despondency, arising from Indigestion or Nervous irritation, they have been used with remarkable success; nor are they less user to use to the system. At the same time, it makes a remedy for Headache, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, and it is in their operation, securing, as they do, the desired end, by a steady, regular and casy influence. Taken daily, in duses prosecuted, they will be found to operate in that gentle and salutary, manner, which is, in fact, their highest recommendation. ry manner, which is, in fact, their highest recommendation.

The Juliosing certificates, among many others which have been received from the most respectable sources, furnish satisfactory proof of the value and efficacy of this highly popular

The Howd Water Wheel.

Exerts, Me., Sept., 20, 1845.

This certifies that I have recommended the use of WIS—TAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY for decreases of the langs, for two verts past, and many battles to my knowledge to see the langs, for two verts past, and many battles to my knowledge to see the less of Wheels. It can the less water than my Breast Wheel. In carried two cases where it was thought confirmed consumption had taken place, the Wild Cherry effected a cure.
